The XIV International Workshop on “Neutrino Telescopes” will take place in Venice, March 15-18, 2011 at the "Istituto Veneto di Scienze, Lettere ed Arti".

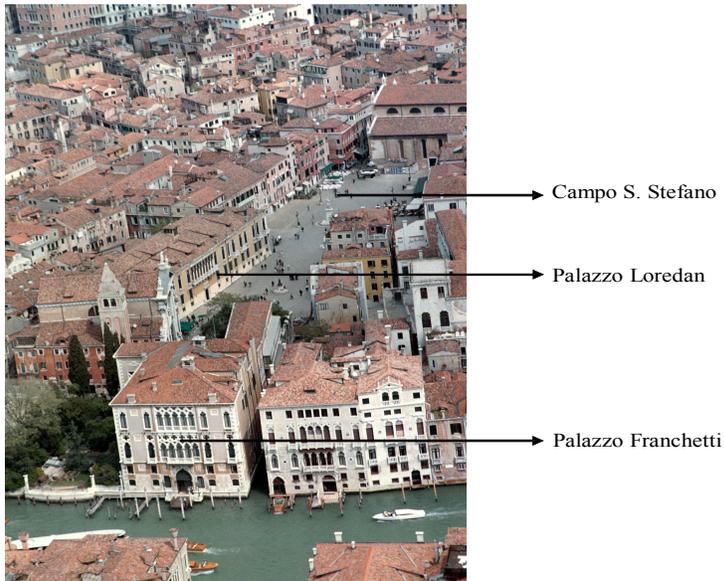

The Workshop will be mainly based on review talks followed by extensive discussions. As in the previous Workshops, the programme will cover topics on Neutrino Physics, Astrophysics and Cosmology to single out the most interesting current results and problems.

2. Conference Site

Please, take note that the Workshop will be held at “Palazzo Franchetti”, the “Istituto Veneto di Scienze, Lettere ed Arti” second premise, one of the most noteworthy buildings in Venice right next to the “Palazzo Loredan”, the Institute historic home since 1809. In the picture below you can see Campo S. Stefano, Palazzo Loredan and Palazzo Franchetti. The location of the Palazzo Franchetti in the very heart of the city, the site and complexity of its spaces, its noble architecture and its garden overlooking the Grand Canal make it a modern Conference Center with all the necessary services.

You can also take a private water taxi from the airport directly to your final destination (the cost is abt. € 100,00 (1-4 people)).

From the airport you can also take the public Bus (ATVO), Line 35 (the cost is € 3,00) (for the timetable, please, see: http://www.atvo.it/images/doc/linee/M.Polo-Venezia\_\(dal\_31.10.10\_al\_26.03.2011\).pdf.pdf) or a land taxi to Piazzale Roma (the cost is abt. € 40,00) and from there catch a public boat (Vaporetto) to the stop closest to your final destination (see details in the next paragraph).

For those arriving by train at the Railway Station or by car at the parking garage at Piazzale Roma (see map) there are several possibilities. To go directly to the “Istituto Veneto di Scienze, Lettere ed Arti” one can take the Vaporetto (ACTV), Line 1 or Line 2 (the cost is € 6.50) (every 10 minutes from 7:00 until 21:00; every 20/30 minutes afterwards) to the stop Accademia.
